

9 Put the verbs in brackets into the present perfect or the past simple.

- A: What's the matter, Bill?
 B: I 1 (hurt) my arm.
 A: Oh, when 2 (you/do) that?
 B: I 3 (do) it yesterday when I was playing football.
 A: Is it still painful?
 B: Well, it 4 (hurt) a lot when it 5 (happen).
 A: 6 (you/see) a doctor yet?
 B: Yes, I 7 (go) last night but I 8
 (not/break) any bones and I just need to rest.
 A: No football for you for a while, then!
 B: Oh, I don't know about that! I 9
 (never/injure) myself playing football before. Besides, I'm sure I'll be okay in a few days.

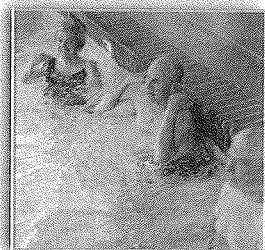

10 Look at the pictures and complete the dialogues using the correct reflexive pronoun and should/shouldn't.

- 1 A: What's happened?
 B: I've cut
 A: You be more careful.

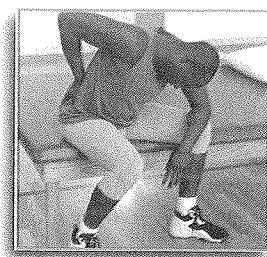

- 2 A: What's wrong?
 B: She's hurt
 A: She walk for a while.

- 3 A: What are they doing?
 B: They're enjoying in the pool.
 A: They exercise more often.

- 4 A: What's wrong?
 B: He's injured
 A: He play tennis for a while.

- 5 A: What's happened?
 B: I've hurt
 A: You lift such heavy weights.

11 a) Fill in since or for.

- | | |
|------------------------------|------------------------|
| 1 the last three years | 6 I was six |
| 2 yesterday | 7 last Monday |
| 3 six months | 8 we moved house |
| 4 breakfast time | 9 two o'clock |
| 5 1998 | 10 four hours |

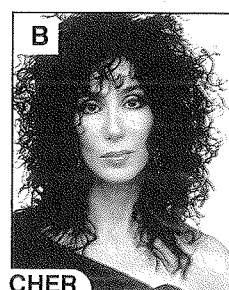

b) Now make up sentences using the present perfect simple and five of the phrases above.

She has lived in Japan for the last three years.

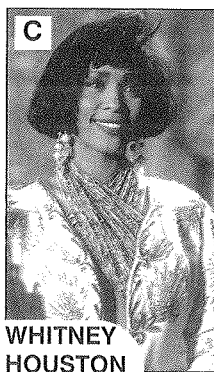

12 Match the pictures to the prompts. Then, expand them into full sentences using the present perfect continuous with for or since.

JIM CAREY

CHER

WHITNEY HOUSTON

MICHAEL CHANG

TARA LIPINSKI

- | | |
|---|--------------------------|
| 1 play / professional tennis / over ten years | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2 record / hit songs / 1965 | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3 skate / she was three years old | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4 make / albums / fourteen years | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5 act / comedy films / 1977 | <input type="checkbox"/> |

13 a) Read the article and put the verbs in brackets into the present perfect simple or present perfect continuous.

He had a difficult childhood, but this Canadian actor 1
(always/make) people laugh.

He 2
(work) in comedy since he was fifteen and 3 (perform) on the stage for many years. Since he 4 (live) in Los Angeles, he 5
(make) many very successful comedy films, including Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, Dumb and Dumber and The Mask. However, he 6 (play) some serious roles too, such as Truman in The Truman Show.

Lately, he 7
 (practise) his singing for a new film about the Beatles. He is, without doubt, a very talented man.

b) Can you guess who the actor is?

Communication:
 Talking about Injuries

14 Fill in the missing words from the list below. Then, act out the dialogue in pairs.

write, aspirin, wrist, hurts, sprained

- Sue: Doctor, I think I've broken my 1
 Doc.: Can you move it?
 Sue: Yes, I can.
 Doc.: Well then, you haven't broken it. You have 2 it.
 Sue: Is that bad?
 Doc.: It means you can't play basketball for a few weeks.
 Sue: Can I still 3?
 Doc.: Yes, but not too much. You should rest it as much as possible.
 Sue: It really 4!
 Doc.: You can take some 5 to stop the pain.
 Sue: Thanks, Doctor!

Reading

15 Read the letter and answer the questions which follow, then match the paragraph descriptions to the paragraphs. Finally, think of similar expressions to replace Best wishes.

17th May ...

Dear Elaine,

Guess what? I'm in hospital! I'm in the Royal General, in ward 4 and I've been here since Saturday. I've broken my leg—but don't worry, I'm okay.

It happened on Saturday night outside the fish and chip shop in Rose Square. I was in a hurry and I ran down some steps. There was some oil on the steps, but I didn't see it so I slipped and fell.

I was lucky that my parents were with me. They took me straight to the hospital. I had an X-ray and the doctor said my leg was broken. Now it is in plaster and I'm not allowed to move it. The doctors and nurses have been very kind, but the food here is awful! Anyway, they've said I can go home tomorrow or the next day.

How are things with you? I hope you're well. Can you send me a nice long letter, or phone me when I get home?

Best wishes,
 Carol

Para 1

Para 2

Para 3

Para 4

- | | |
|--------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1 Where is Carol? | 4 What happened at the hospital? |
| 2 Why is she in hospital? | 5 When can she go home? |
| 3 How did the accident happen? | |

details of the accident after the accident closing remarks reason for writing

Writing (a letter describing an accident)

16 Put the prompts in the correct order, then use them to write a letter to your pen-friend explaining what happened (100 - 150 words). Use the letter in Ex. 15 as a model.

- a ☐ lucky/sister/with me — she/take me/straight/hospital — doctor/examine/arm/say/badly scalded — now/it/in a bandage/not allowed/get it wet — doctors/nurses/very nice - say/I/go home/tomorrow
- b ☐ City General/ward 17/Sunday — scald/arm/not worry/okay
- c ☐ hope/you/family/well — write soon/tell me/all/news
- d ☐ happen/Sunday morning/kitchen/home — boil/some water/pan/fall off/stove/all/water/go/on/arm