

Galería Alea is an art space located in Granada, Spain. Our main work line is contemporary art, promoting talented artists from Granada and abroad in different styles and disciplines such as painting, collage, jewelry, ceramics and photography.

We seek to reinforce the cultural and artistic ties in a city that, through its well-known Faculty of Fine Arts of the University of Granada; a reference for art students from all over the world.

For us, the links and experiences that a project like ERASMUS provides among students and companies are very important. Students begin to experience working life in all its senses, and the company nourishes by the vital energy of them, creating a unique and beneficial symbiosis for both parties.

We can offer you:

- The opportunity for students to develop their skills within the real scope of their future profession. Previous experience is not necessary.
- A wide perspective of the functioning of an artistic work space; the interaction with customers, organization of the space, contact with suppliers, encouragement to new strategies of dissemination and sale of art, artistic creation, resolution of complex situations, teamwork and direct response to the manager.
- A motivating work environment, accompanied by professionals with different backgrounds, both artistic (photography, painting, illustration, digital media), and management (economics, finance and marketing).
- We are looking for students who have an interest in the art world, motivated to live the experience of being out of their country, in a student city, who speak English and Spanish (other languages are welcome, but not necessary) and who have a minimum time of 3 months (preferably between 6 months and 1 year) to share this experience together.

We are really looking forward to meet you and for you to meet us. Granada is a magical place and so is Galería Alea.
