

PROGRAM

9.30 Registration

9.45 Institutional Greetings

Katrin Niglas, Vice-Rector of Tallinn University

9.50 Presentation of the Seminar

Lucya Passiatore and Kristiina Rebane, Tallinn University

10.00 Domestic Violence in Estonia in the Context of the Istanbul Convention

Helve Kase, Estonian Open Society Institute

10.45 From Femicide to Terricide: Feminism, Alternative Spiritualities, and the More-Than-Human. An Ethnographic Perspective (online)

Giovanna Parmigiani, Harvard Divinity School

11.30 Q & A

12.00 Coffee Break

12.30 Animals and Women: Understanding the Nature of Violence (online)

Gary Francione, Rutgers Law School

13.15 Men, Masculinities, and Violence Against Non-Human Animals: Towards an Intersectional Approach

Kadri Aavik, Tallinn University

14.00 Questions and Final Discussion

14.30 Break

15.30 “Food for Profit” Movie Screening (N-406) SuperNova Cinema, BFM

Speakers:

Helve Kase, Psychologist, Estonian Open Society Institute

Giovanna Parmigiani, Cultural Anthropologist, Harvard Divinity School

Gary Francione, Law and Philosophy, Rutgers Law School

Kadri Aavik, Sociologist, Tallinn University

Session Chairs and Organizers:

Lucya Passiatore, Kristiina Rebane, Tallinn University