

Sustainable, Usable and Visible Digital Cultural Heritage: Twinning for Excellence (DIGHT-Net)

Kick-off event Programme

Thursday, 10 October

Tallinn University (Uus-Sadama 5, M-649)

- 13.30–14.00: Gathering, welcome coffee
14.00–14.30: Marek Tamm (TLU): Welcome, project presentation and website launch
14.30–14.45: David Monteiro (EC Project Officer): Greetings (remotely)
14.45–15.15: Daniele Monticelli (TLU): Presentation of WP1
15.15–15.45: Merit Maran (TLU): Presentation of WP2
15.45–16.15: Coffee break
16.15–16.45: Ihab Saloul (UvA): Presentation of WP3
16.45–17.15: Francesco Mazzuchelli (UNIBO): Presentation of WP4
17.15–17.45: Hannu Salmi (UTU): Presentation of WP5
17.45–18.15: Marek Tamm (TLU): Presentation of WP6
19.00–21.00: Dinner

Friday, 11 October

Tallinn University Academic Library, Centre for Digitisation (Rävala puiestee 10, 6th floor)

- 10.30–11.00: Welcome coffee and introduction
11.00–12.15: Indrek Ibrus (TLU): The role of knowledge graphs in studying and making culture
12.15–13.30: Lunch
13.30–14.00: Guided tour at TLU Centre for Digitisation (Peeter Kondratjev, TLU)
14.00–15.15: Panel of junior researchers:
 - Martina Grinello (UNIBO): Digitising/decolonising cultural heritage
 - Mark Mets (TLU): Spatial cultural data analysis: bridging Lotman and computational methods
 - Marjolein Uittenbogaard (TLU/UvA): Digital heritage and diasporic storytelling: A preliminary inquiry into the digitalization of the Srebrenica Memorial Center
 - Yan Asadchy (TLU): Beautiful women and brutal men: stereotypical gendered portrayals in AI-generated images
- 15.15–15.45: Coffee break
15.45–18.30: Discussion on the DIGHT-Net project aims and activities
19.00–21.00: Dinner