3rd International Symposium on Intergroup Communication (ISIC3)

June 23 – 26, 2025

Hosted by University of Warsaw, Poland

Organized by Karolina Hansen, Howard Giles, and Antonis Gardikiotis

The 3rd International Symposium on Intergroup Communication (ISIC3: 2025) will be held between 23 to 26 June 2025. The conference brings together scholars across disciplines who engage in research and analysis concerning the role of intergroup communication in society. It will host a number of panels across diverse areas including, but not limited to, health, culture, and current political issues. Discipline diversity is the hallmark of ISIC3 and includes psychology, communication, anthropology, sociology and applied linguistics.

Full details regarding the call for papers, additional information and conference updates are available and updated here - https://isic3.psych.uw.edu.pl/. The conference will feature distinguished Keynote Speakers: Dominic Abrams, Camiel J. Beukeboom, Michał Bilewicz, Jake Harwood, Nicholas A. Palomares, & Yan Bing Zhang.

International Organizing Committee: Michael Hogg (USA), Sucharita Belavadi (India), Miles Hewstone (UK), Anastassia Zabrodskaja (Estonia), Richard Clément (Canada), Liz Jones (Malaysia), Bernadette Watson (Hong Kong), Hiroshi Ota (Japan), & Monica Rubini (Italy)

Local Committee (University of Warsaw): Karolina Hansen, Maria Mirucka, Michał Wypych, & Kamila Zochniak

All proposals received by January 31, 2025 will be reviewed and corresponding authors notified of the status of their submissions by February 28, 2025. ISIC3 will result in a Special Issue of the journal Psychology of Language and Communication. Any queries, please contact us at isic3.conference@psych.uw.edu.pl.
