Film shooting

“RASKUS”

Our film “Raskus” is a film about difficulties in everyday life. It is more a movement movie than a dance movie. We had three dancers who struggled with different heights in nature. The aim for this movie was to show that the journey is usually more important than the final result. You can't never stay up. You need to come down, to get back up!

10-13 September

Film editing and postproduction

- It was free time for us, because there was everybody for each work!

14 September
