

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 952083

YouthLife

YouthLife Workshop on Mixed Methods in Life Course Research in the Dolphin Hotel, Southampton September 26th-27th, 2022

Note: The schedule is given in BST

Monday, 26 th September 2022
10:00–10:30	Introduction to workshop, to us, and to each other – and the YouthLife podcast series Ann Berrington, Rosalind Edwards and Susie Weller
10:30–12:00	Philosophies and frameworks in using and assessing mixed methods Chair: Rosalind Edwards Speaker: Tony Onwugbuzie, the University of Cambridge, UK.
12:00–13:00	Lunch
13:00–14:45	Mixed Method Case studies and panel discussion Chair: Susie Weller Speakers: Felicity Bishop , the University of Southampton, UK. James Hall , the University of Southampton, UK. Rose Lindsey , the University of Southampton, UK. Athina Vlachantoni , the University of Southampton, UK.
14:45–15:00	Coffee break
15:00–17:00	Workshop on presenting your paper as a poster – preparing a poster ready to present work Chair: Ann Berrington Speaker: Lisa Ballard, the University of Southampton, UK. Facilitator: Seb Stannard, the University of Southampton, UK.
19:00	Dinner at hotel

Tuesday, 27 th September 2022
09:30–11:00	Undertaking cross-national mixed methods research Chair: Susie Weller Speaker: Laura Camfield, the University of East Anglia, UK.
11:00–11:30	Coffee Break
11:30–13:00	Presentations and discussion of participants' use of mixed methods Convenor: Ann Berrington Presentations and group feedback
13:00–14:30	Networking long lunch among participants including those from partner institutions YouthLife Consortium Meeting (separate room for YouthLife partners)
14:30–16:30	Planning and preparing the new Longitudinal Study of Estonian Youth (ELSY) Convenors: Rosalind Edwards, Gerli Nimmerfeldt and Aat Liefbroer Presentation and group feedback
17:30–22.00	A visit to the historical city of Winchester for evening meal for YouthLife participants Minibus pick up and drop off