

Draft Programme

Tuesday, August 22 – Arrival of participants

15.00 – 18.30	Board meeting Room M136
---------------	-------------------------

Wednesday, August 23 – Conference Room M225

9.30-10.00	Registration
10.00-10.30	Opening of the conference: Prof. Susanne Popp , President of ISHD Welcome on behalf of Tallinn University
10.30-11.30	Chair: Prof. Em. Markus Furrer  Prof. Em. Markus Furrer. The shadows of the past – a challenge for Heritage Education  Prof. Em. Elisabeth Erdmann. From the erection to the destruction of a monument: Sir Francis Drake in Offenburg
11.30-11.45	Coffee break
11.45-13.15	Chair: Prof. Terry Haydn  Prof. Terry Haydn. School history and moral exemplar: human heritage as a forgotten element of history education. A view from the UK  Prof. Em. Masayuki Sato. Teaching of the inherent time in Japanese history education  Dr. Nimrod Tal. Historicising troubled past to enhance democratic citizenship: The Kfar Qasim Massacre in the Israeli ethical and historical consciousness
13.15-14.15	Lunch
14.15-15.45	Chair: Prof. Susanne Popp  Prof. Dr. Susanne Popp, Philipp Bernhard, PhD. The authenticity of historical sources and heritage education in the history classroom

	Prof. Hab. Joanna Wojdon. ChatGPT, Wikipedia, videogames and other carriers of heritage unwelcome in school history education – their potential and challenges Dr. Jan Löffström, Dr. Niklas Ammert. History and moral encounters: an international research project, its results and implications for heritage education
15.45-16.00	Coffee
16.00-17.30	Chair: Prof. Elize S van Eeden Prof. Elize S van Eeden. Broadening past local and regional heritage for history learners in their own spaces: A learning curve from the Fezile Dabi district, South Africa Univ.-Prof. Wolfgang Hasberg. “Geschichtsvereine - guardians of cultural heritage” Associate Prof. Katja Gorbahn. Heritage and identity in the context of German studies

Thursday, August 24 – Conference Conference Room M225

	Astra Building Maximum
9.00 - 10.30	Chair: Prof. Hab. Joanna Wojdon Dr. Polina Verbitska. War and peace. Museum as a medium in history education of a young generation Prof. Sylvain Doussot, Prof. Nadine Fink. Critical inquiry about tangible and intangible heritage in history class: demystifying values Christian Grieshaber. The German Corner („Deutsches Eck’) in Koblenz: An example for a critical heritage and history education
10.30-11.00	Coffee
	Room M214	M224
11.00-12.30	Chair: Prof. Em. Elisabeth Erdmann Dr. Piotr Podemski. Renewing the face of this land. The John Paul II Memory War in contemporary Poland Jonas Dischl, MA. Reflections on Swiss culture of memory in regard to the massacre in St. Gingolph in July 1944.	Chair: Associate Prof. Katja Gorbahn Associate Prof. Marko van den Berg, Johanna Norppa, PhD student. Historylab for European civic engagement - open e-toolkit to train history teachers on digital teaching and learning

	Associate Prof. Angelos Palikidis, Stella Mavrou, PhD student. The Lausanne Treaty (1923) in the contemporary Greek and Turkish history curricula and textbooks. A comparative study	Joris Van Doorselaere, PhD student. Heritage and historical inquiry: a case study  Diego Miguel-Revilla, Esther López-Torres, Jorge Ortuño-Molina, Rosendo MartínezRodríguez &amp; Sebastián Molina-Puche. Heritage & cultural icons for history education: a study with primary education prospective teachers in Spain
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-15.00	Chair: Dr. Jan Löfström  Dr. Maria K. Georgiou. Heritage and education in post-conflict settings: The case of the Republic of Cyprus  Nikola Butkovicova, teacher. Use and abuse of cultural heritage in local history: History class investigation of building and re-building a monument in former Czechoslovakia  Tanja Taivalanti, PhD student. Intangible cultural heritage in the visual presentation of Finnish-speaking adolescent's historical narratives	Chair: Dr. Mare Oja  Associate Prof. David Ludvigsson, Prof. Martin Stolare, Prof. Cecilia Trenter. Heritage sites in history education: Students, guides and teachers in cultural heritage-making processes  Dr. Mahunele Thotse. Students' residence names: A toponymical approach to teaching history of the South African Liberation Struggle on the university landscape  Aleksi Marti, PhD student. "If there were many voices, it would be easier to think I am one of the many" – Visitors' experiences at the Finnish National Museum's exhibition "The Story of Finland"
15.00-15.30	Coffee
15.30-18.30	Annual conference of ISHD Conference Room M225
19.00	Dinner Mare III floor atrium

Friday, August 25 – Conference

	Astra Building Maximum	Astra Building A018
9.00 - 10.30	Chair: Associate Prof. Andres Andresen  Associate Prof. Andres Andresen. Negotiating Estonian cultural heritage in historical perspective: Russian Orthodox church buildings as sources of ideological controversy	Chair: Dr. Tiiu Kreegipuu  Brent Geerts, PhD researcher. Integrating 'colonial heritage' into history education: museum education as a means to foster young people's postcolonial historical thinking

	Broos Delanote Van den Broeck, Laura De Schrijver, Jelle. Is it possible to live outside of time? Philosophical questions to enhance students' critical thinking about history Hanna-Liis Kaarlõp, PhD student. The complexities of critical thinking: is fact-checking sufficient?	Dr. Tiiu Kreegipuu. Museums as mediators of heritage sites and history education centres Aive Peil. Teaching democratic values through stories and artifacts
10.30-11.00	Coffee
11.00-12.30	Chair: Dr. Mare Oja Sabīne Ozoliņa, teacher. Museum-based methods of teaching history Dr. Mare Oja. Teaching cultural heritage in history education, guidelines and suggestions of the teacher's guide Christian Tammerik, MA student, teacher. Interactive video as a learning tool - teaching heritage using an studivideo	Chair: Hanna-Liis Kaarlõp Prof. David Lefrançois, Marc-André Éthier. Teaching social studies in Québec through video games: Wishful thinking or real learning opportunities? Yashi Yuan, PhD student. To what extent is China still promoting a past of "national humiliation" in history textbooks? An examination of "narrative templates" of modern Chinese history in China's 2007 and 2019 high school history textbook Mann Loper, PhD student. Heritage, "national character," and patriotic education
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-14.30	Closing session of the conference
15.00 – 17.00	Social events for selection

Social events on August 25, different options.

1) The Vikings before the Vikings in Seaplane Harbour

Fifteen years ago, ship burials were discovered in Saare County that have changed our understanding of the start of the Viking age. The findings of Salme are an important source of the fascinating history of the Vikings. During the special hands-on tour, you will find out more about the new chapter in the history of the Vikings as told by the ship burials of Salme.

More info: The Vikings before the Vikings - Seaplane Harbour \(meremuuseum.ee\)

a`10 EUR (maximum 15 and minimum 7 participants)

2) Medieval cog from Tallinn in Fat Margaret

The museum exhibits the wreck of the oldest ship found in Estonia which is approximately 700 years old. A vessel of this shape is called a cog. Such cogs used to sail the North Sea and the Baltic Sea. During a hands-on tour you can explore various items which were found near the shipwreck and the life of medieval sailors.

More info: Discover the exhibition - Paks Margareeta : Paks Margareeta \(meremuuseum.ee\)

a`10 EUR (maximum 15 and minimum 7 participants)

3) Guided tour in the Old City

a´10 EUR (maximum 20 participants)

Saturday, August 26 – Departure of participants