

The Diversity of (Post-)Formalism(s)

Session II

An international workshop organized by the Tallinn University School of Humanities and the University of Burgundy (Dijon)

14 October 2023

Tallinn University — room M-648

Sponsored by Estonian Research Council grant PRG319

10.00–10.30 Registration of participants, light refreshments and coffee

Opening remarks

10.30–10.45 Igor Pilshchikov (Tallinn / Los Angeles)
From Formalism to Structuralism and Beyond

A keynote lecture

10.45–11.45 Galin Tihanov (London)
Critique and Endurance: Notes (some from the underground) on Russian Formalism

11.45–12.15 Coffee break

Formalism and around

12.15–12.45 Galina Babak (Prague / Vienna)
Ukrainian Formalism sub specie Political Epistemology

12.45–13.15 Alexander Dmitriev (Lausanne / Tallinn)
The Legacy of Oleksander Biletsky (1884–1961): Ukrainian Reader and Muscovite Self-Projection

13.15–13.45 Serge Tchougounnikov (Dijon)
Gestural Consciousness: Formalist Research in the Field of Expressive Movement

13.45–14.30 Coffee break

Formalism and after

14.30–15.00 Valerii Otiakovskii (Tartu)
The Committee for Contemporary Literature and Unpublished Formalist Books

15.00–15.30 Mikhail Trunin (Tallinn)
Juri Lotman on the Historical Novel: from Yuri Tynianov to Jaan Kross

15.30–16.00 Mihhail Lotman (Tallinn / Tartu)
Between Realism and Nominalism: The Theory of Verse Metre in Formalism and Structuralism

16.00–17.00 Coffee and free discussion

18.30 Dinner