Why Estonia?

Estonia is in the Schengen Area, so we have open borders with the rest of Europe. It connects the dots between Scandinavia, Central Europe and what lies to the east. You can fly, sail, ride or drive to Estonia from anywhere in Europe.

Estonia has over 1500 islands, 1000 lakes and 7000 rivers. Around 55% of Estonian territory is covered with forest. Being among the least densely populated countries in Europe, it is well-known for its cosy living environment with the cleanest air in the world (according to WHO ranking).

Estonia is a digital society, with electronic ID-cards, e-government, e-health, e-school, e-parking etc. Wireless internet access can be found everywhere. The Skype software was developed by Estonian engineers.

It speaks Estonian, as well as English, Russian, Finnish and German. Estonians tend to be at least bilingual, and according to recent studies, are among the best English speakers in Europe.

Cost of Living

Living costs in Estonia are affordable and are considered to be lower than in most other European countries. General feedback from foreigners who have spent some time here is that living conditions are similar to those in Western Europe. The currency used in Estonia is the euro. At minimum, students need 300 euros per month in addition to housing costs. Few examples of the average costs:

- Accommodation: prices range in dormitories from 150 EUR to 421 EUR and 300 EUR to ... EUR in private flats.
- Student meals: prices range from 3.50 EUR to 6 EUR.
- Public transport tickets: single paper ticket costs 2 EUR (1 EUR for ISIC Student and Scholar Card holders), monthly cards from 8.50 EUR (for students) to 23 EUR. Public transport is free for the residents of Tallinn.
- Theatre ticket: 14–76 EUR
- Concert ticket: 8–30 EUR
- Movie ticket: 4,5–9,4 EUR
- Private sports clubs: 30–70 EUR per month

How to Choose your Field?

The most common way is to choose your field based on your interests. Here are three suggestions to make it easier.

- Choose a field, that you are interested in and where you could use your skills, experience, character and values. Think, whether you would see yourself working in this field.
- Get to know your programme and if possible, get in contact with someone from the same field, for example our Student Ambassadors. Do not make any decisions based on only programme descriptions, but also see the offered courses.
- Make your own decision. An advice from family members, teachers and friends might give you tips but the final decision should be made only by yourself.

Watch the video for tips as well.

Practical Info

Temporary Residence Permit

All students who are not Estonian citizens or EU citizens (including EEA countries and Switzerland) need a temporary residence permit for study. EU citizens should obtain a temporary right of residence in Estonia.

Please note that Estonia does not issue a "study visa", all Non-EU students should apply for temporary residence permit for studying (TRP). When certain conditions are met, then it is possible to apply for C- (short term) or D-visa (long term) to travel to Estonia and apply for residence permit after arrival.

The visa and residence permit application process will usually begin after student has been accepted to study on chosen programme and after university has forwarded required acceptance documents.

For Non-EU/EEA students

All degree students from Non-EU/EEA countries need to at one point apply for the Estonian Temporary residence permit for studies. It is recommended that you apply for the Estonian TRP prior to travelling to Estonia. You should, though, take into account that the process of the application will durate two months and during the busiest times even longer.

If you are applying for the temporary residence permit for study in Estonia prior to your arrival to Estonia you can do it at their nearest Estonian Embassy. Please remember that if you submit any copies of the documents required you will have to confirm the copies with your name, signature and date. Some documents need to be notarized.

If there is less than two months until your studies start, then there is a possibility to also apply for an Estonian visa together with the TRP. This will ensure that you can arrive to Estonia by the time your studies start. If you need to also apply for a visa together with the TRP, you should apply for a D-visa (long stay – 6 months), the application procedure is described here.

Please make sure to read through the instructions of applying the visa carefully as there are certain restrictions for travelling to Estonia with a visa. We recommend to apply for the TRP together with the visa at the same time. Students can get their TRP in Estonia, yet the application process should be started abroad.

You can see the list of documents needed to apply for the Estonian TRP here.

Health insurance contract has to be valid in Estonia during the whole validity period of the residence permit (at least one year) and must meet these requirements.

Receiving the temporary residence permit will take up to two months, so please begin with the process as soon as possible! If you submit any copies of the documents to the Estonian representations you have to confirm the copy with your name, signature and date.

Temporary residence permit for study may be issued with a period of validity until the end of the nominal study period but for no longer than the estimated duration of studies.

If you have any specific questions about the requirements for the documents needed to apply for the TRP you are welcome to contact the Estonian Police and Boarder Guard Board (ppa@politsei.ee).

Accommodation

All new students are responsible themselves for making sure they have the necessary accommodation when entering Estonia for studies. The University can help by indicating the direction to where to look a place from.

The University is also mediating the places between dormitories and the students. It should be kept in mind though, that applying for a dormitory place does not automatically mean that there is a place available. The places in the dormitories are limited and therefore not all of the students can be accommodated in the dormitories. A lot of them use the private housing options. There are several alternatives for arranging accommodation during your studies at Tallinn University:

- Tallinn University Dormitory

Working in Estonia

International students in Estonia do not need an additional working permit to work while studying full time and they are allowed to work on the condition that it does not interfere with their studies. Students have to receive passing grades for a full load of courses and finish studies within the nominal time.

All Non-EU students can also stay in Estonia for additional 6 months after their graduation (with the permission of the university) to look for a job in Estonia. Upon finding a job after graduation, they can use this time to apply for a temporary residence permit for work.
